The October meeting was attended by about 20 people. Troy Iaconis with AbbVie presented DUOPA: A DIFFERENT WAY Thank You Troy.

At the October meeting Dave King explained the changes that have been going on with the Support Group with the creation of a non-profit corporation. We believe going forward this will be very beneficial to the Support Group. I have included the Synopsis page that Dave had at the meeting. Thank you, Dave, for all your hard work in completing this.

November will be "Pedal For Parkinson's" held November 2nd at the River Plex. I would like to tell you about an exciting event the Central Illinois Parkinson's Support Group is putting together, PEDAL FOR PARKINSON'S. This event will combine an afternoon of Parkinson's awareness and education with a fundraising event. There will be a great lineup of speakers, a full array of educational displays and some lite snacks all while raising funds to help create Awareness and benefit the Parkinson's Community of Central Illinois.

Now is the time to start getting your friends and neighbors signed up to support you there is a sign-up sheet included with this Newsletter and you can pick up additional ones at the meeting.
